BOMBAY COURIER EXTRAORDINARY.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 24, 1811.

THE Extra ſhip Union, Captain Rankin arrived this afternoon, ſhe ſailed with the fleet from England March 12th parted company on the 18th and joined the Bonne Citoyenne ſloop of war with the Cornwallis and Charlotte of this port, and ſome tranſports for the Cape under convoy.

The Charlotte and Cornwallis went to the Isle of France.

Two days before, the Bonne Citoyenne fell in with Rear Admiral Sir Joſeph Yorke, who had been with a reinforcement to Lord Wellington, who, upon this accession to his Army, commenced hoſtile operations againſt the enemy.—Maſſena had in conſequence retreated, leaving his heavy baggage and the greater part of his Artillery and had broke down a bridge in his Rear—The Engliſh Army was in full purſuit.

On the 3d April the Union ſpoke the Merope Sloop of War, which ſtated, that a few days before ſhe had communicated with a ſhip conveying deſpatches for Government from Cadiz, the purport of which was that a ſucceſsful ſortie had been made by the Allied Forces in Cadiz, againſt the enemy's lines and a battery which had annoyed the ſhipping between the Iſle of Leon and the Main.

The enemy had upwards of 3000 men killed and taken priſoners and the loſs of the allies was 1050;
